

WASTEWATER ENGINEER

Salary:	Open	Location:	Wilmington, Delaware
Employer:	Green Stone Engineering LLC	Type:	Full Time-Experienced

DESCRIPTION

Green Stone Engineering LLC is a civil engineering consulting firm providing water resources engineering, ecological restoration and management, and civil site design services. Water resources studies and engineering services include hydrologic analysis, floodplain analysis and mapping, culvert and bridge hydraulic design, stormwater management design, drainage and floodplain studies, water resource protection area evaluation, infiltration basin design, sanitary sewer design, water and wastewater pump stations design, wastewater treatment and disposal, and water supply design.

We have immediate openings in our Wilmington, DE office for an experienced wastewater engineer. The ideal candidate will have 3+ years of experience working in the field of wastewater treatment and disposal. He/she will work closely with the Project Manager to provide for the accurate and timely completion of the technical aspects of wastewater engineering projects through the performance of engineering functions and the coordination of the efforts of computer-aided drafting. Such work includes: performing engineering design and preparing reports, permit applications and specifications for contract documents, support Sr. Engineers in preparation of contract documents, visit project sites coordinate with the design team to develop construction plans and specifications, and monitor activities during the construction of the project. He/she is expected to be proficient with engineering design and drafting software.

We offer a competitive salary and benefit package. This is an opportunity to work in the field of civil and environmental engineering. Email, mail. Or fax your resume in confidence to:

Green Stone Engineering LLC, 5600 Kirkwood Highway, Wilmington, DE 19808

Telephone (302) 998-4401 Fax # (302) 998-4403

Notes: 1 opening

Requirements

The Wastewater Engineer must have a BS Civil or Environmental Engineering, 3+ years experience and a current E.I. or PE..

Employer Information

About Green Stone Engineering LLC

Established: March 2004 - Wilmington, Delaware

Locations: Wilmington, Delaware
Milton, Delaware

Services: Green Stone Engineering LLC is a civil engineering consulting firm providing water resources engineering, ecological restoration and management, and civil site design services.

Water resources studies and engineering services include hydrologic analysis, floodplain analysis and mapping, culvert and bridge hydraulic design, stormwater management design, drainage and floodplain studies, water resource protection area evaluation, infiltration basin design, sanitary sewer design, water and wastewater pump stations design, wastewater treatment and disposal, and water supply design.

Ecological restoration and environmental permitting services include stream and wetland restoration, riparian buffer development, stream and habitat assessment, wetland and subaqueous lands permitting and mitigation.

Staff: Green Stone offers a multidisciplinary staff of hydrologic and hydraulic engineers, hydrogeologist, hydrologists and design engineers.